Dear Sir/Madam

Sub: Call for Research Article

Universities' Journal of Phytochemistry and Ayurvedic Heights (UJPAH) with ISSN 09733507 is being published biannually since 2002, one publication in June and the other in December every year. It publishes original research on Plant Chemistry, Natural Products, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Pharmacology and Ayurveda.

The initiative of UJPAH is to provide a platform to scientists, academicians and young researchers to promote, share and discuss research on Indian herbs and carry out scientific assessment of traditional herbs and medicines of indigenous system to craft a new template model.

It is an audacious venture and has charted a new direction in genuine ways to promote and particularly inspire young researchers to join the main stream to revamp and reorient scientific documentation in specific areas of Phytochemistry and Ayurveda and related field. UJPAH is fully committed to open access and initiatives to provide free access to research papers as soon as they are published.

It is peer-reviewed journal which is indexed by Cite Factor, International Impact Factor Services and Scientific Journal Impact Factor. It has been assigned with DOI (Digital Object Identifier) prefix and is Crossref member. The Journal follows Ethical standards.

You, your faculty members and the research scholars are welcome to mail the text of original research work on the aforesaid areas. The articles should be of uneven academic quality, informative & contributory to the field. It should be transparent, properly configured, clear and should also mention unbiased experimental methodology, analysis, interpretation & reporting.

The guidelines for authors and their responsibilities for the purpose of fair publication are available on our website www.ujpah.in. They should mail their original texts through Email: editor@ujpah.in and dr.sfarooq.him@gmail.com. On acceptance, the research papers shall be published in Journal UJPAH, Vol. I, No. 36 to be released in June this year. The last date for receiving the research papers at this end is 15 May 2024 for June issue of the journal after which no research paper will be considered.

Your valuable contribution and participation well in time to support our initiative will go a long way to boost and enrich research on Indian herbs/ medicinal plants in the related fields. A catalogue of the journal is appended to see the last issue published.

Thanks

With regards

Yours sincerely,

Dr. I. P. Saxena
Editor (UJPAH)
